

The seal of West Pottsgrove Township, Pennsylvania, is a circular emblem. It features a central shield divided into four quadrants, each containing a different symbol: a tree, a plow, a sheaf of wheat, and a ship. The shield is surrounded by a circular border containing the text "WEST POTTS GROVE TOWNSHIP" at the top and "PENNSYLVANIA" at the bottom. The year "1900" is also visible on the left and right sides of the border.
